ST. VINCENT DE PAUL REGIONAL SEMINARY OFFERS WEDNESDAY VOCATIONS MASS AND LUNCH

Public Invited to Celebrate with Seminarians

BOYNTON BEACH, FLORIDA – (August 24, 2007) – St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary has announced resumption of its public invitation to Wednesday Mass for Vocations on campus at 12:15 p.m. followed by lunch with seminarians in the campus refectory.

This invitation is effective immediately and continues through the end of the academic year in May 2008.

“St. Vincent has quietly gone about its primary mission of seminarian education for more than four decades,” said Rector/President Monsignor Keith R. Brennan. “It is our hope that Catholics will come to recognize and appreciate the tremendous asset they have at the seminary and join us as we pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood diaconate and ministry in the church. I also feel they will take pride in meeting the men who are studying to become the priests of tomorrow.”

The seminary’s physical address is 10701 South Military Trail, Boynton Beach, Florida 33436. Directions and a map to the seminary are available at www.svdp.edu.

Owned by the seven Catholic dioceses of the Province of Florida, the seminary has educated nearly 500 priests since its founding in 1963.
