STANTON CADOW NAMED DIRECTOR OF INSTITUTIONAL ADVANCEMENT

Boynton Beach, FL - Stanton L. Cadow, CFRE, has been named Director of Institutional Advancement for St. Vincent de Paul Regional Seminary.

In his new position, Cadow has responsibility for a comprehensive program of fund-raising and development, including efforts to generate financial resources for annual operations, increasing financial resources for the seminary's endowment and major capital improvement projects. He is also responsible for public and alumni relations.

"We are pleased to have Stanton join our team," said Monsignor Keith R. Brennan, J.C.D., Rector/President of the seminary. "He has a significant record of development achievement, particularly with Roman Catholic institutions, and we have been impressed with his enthusiasm and drive."

Cadow, who has held the Certified Fund Raising Executive designation since 1994, and lead Cadow & Associates Fund Raising Counsel for the past ten years. He has held development positions with the United Way of Escambia County and Baton Rouge, LA, American Red Cross, Community Counselling Services, Capital Quest, Ketchum, and the Cosgriff Company of Omaha, Nebraska. During his career, Cadow has raised or assisted in raising more than $70 million through major gift programs, community and capital campaigns for non-profit organizations across the U.S.

A New Orleans native, Cadow is an alumnus of Southeastern Louisiana University in Hammond, LA with a B.A. in communications. He is single, a competitive swimmer, two-time Ironman triathlete and avid golfer.
